Count 3 of the Information: 31:5324(a)(3); 5325(a) Structuring Transactions to Evade Reporting Requirements

JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $250.00, which is due immediately.

All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant's agreement to forfeit $1,000,000.00 to the government as a result of property or assets derived from or acquired as a result of the offense.

As provided in 18 USC 3663A(c)(3), mandatory restitution is not ordered because an offense against property is involved, and the number of identifiable victims is so large as to make restitution impracticable and determining complex issues of fact related to the cause or amount of the victims' losses would complicate or prolong the sentencing process to a degree that the need to provide restitution to any victim is outweighed by the burden on the sentencing process.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Daryl Ray Rice, is hereby placed on probation on Counts 1 through 3 of the Information for a term of three (3) years. This term consists of three (3) years on each of Counts 1 through 3 of the Information, to be served concurrently, under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 318;
2. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of placement on probation and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer;
3. The defendant shall reside for a period of 8 months in a residential re-entry center (RRC), as directed by the Probation Officer and shall observe the rules of that facility;

4. The defendant shall participate for a period of 4 months in a home detention program which includes electronic monitoring, GPS or voice recognition and shall observe all rules of such program, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall maintain a residential telephone line without devices and/or services that may interrupt operation of the monitoring equipment;
5. The defendant shall pay the costs of electronic monitoring to the contract vendor, not to exceed the sum of $12.00 for each day of participation in the electronic monitoring, GPS, and/or voice recognition program. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer;
6. The defendant shall participate in outpatient substance abuse treatment counseling program that includes urinalysis, saliva and/or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abstain from using illicit drugs, alcohol, and abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision;
7. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the U. S. Probation Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs, and defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer;
8. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating the defendant's drug and alcohol dependency to the aftercare contractor during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 USC 3672. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer;
9. During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment and shall comply with the forfeiture as agreed upon in the plea agreement;
10. The defendant shall not engage, as whole or partial owner, employee or otherwise, in any business involving solicitation of funds via mail or cold-calls to customers, telemarketing activities, investment programs or any other business involving the solicitation of funds or cold-calls to customers without the express approval of the Probation Officer prior to engagement in such employment. Further, the defendant shall provide the Probation Officer with access to any and all business records, client lists and other records pertaining to the operation of any business owned, in whole or in part, by the defendant, as directed by the Probation Officer;
11. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant;
12. The defendant shall report to the United States Probation Office within 72 hours after placement on probation;
13. The defendant shall report in person directly to the Court within 21 days after imposition of this sentence and thereafter report in person to the Court no more than eight (8) times during the first year of probation;

14. The defendant shall submit person and property to search or seizure at any time of the day or night by any law enforcement officer with or without a warrant and with or without reasonable or probable cause;
15. The defendant shall not possess, have under his control, or have access to any firearm, explosive device, or other dangerous weapon, as defined by federal, state or local law.

The Court authorizes the Probation Office to disclose the Presentence Report to the substance abuse treatment provider to facilitate the defendant's treatment for narcotic addiction or drug dependency. Further redisclosure of the Presentence Report by the treatment provider is prohibited without the consent of the sentencing judge;

Court orders Bond exonerated upon surrender to RRC.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
